Essay prompt [required]

Tell a story from your life, describing an experience that either demonstrates your character or helped to shape it.

Maximum length: 500 words

Short response [required]

Our families and communities often define us and our individual worlds. Community might refer to your cultural group, extended family, religious group, neighborhood or school, sports team or club, co-workers, etc. Describe the world you come from and how you, as a product of it, might add to the diversity of the UW.

Maximum length: 300 words

Tip: Keep in mind that the UW strives to create a community of students richly diverse in cultural backgrounds, experiences, values and viewpoints.

Additional information about yourself or your circumstances [optional]

You are not required to write anything in this section, but you may include additional information if something has particular significance to you. For example, you may use this space if:

A screenshot of the Coalition application status page for the University of Washington. The page shows the user's application progress for an 'International First Year Application', which is 86% complete. A red box highlights the 'International First Year Application' title, the progress bar, and the 'GENERATE APPLICATION PDF' button. Other elements include a 'SUBMIT APPLICATION' button, a 'College and Deadline Information' dropdown, and a 'GO TO PROFILE' button at the bottom right. The top navigation bar includes links for Home, Profile, Locker, Colleges, and Help, along with a notification bell and a 'PL' profile icon. A footer bar contains a help icon and the text 'le - In Progress'.

International Applicants

The University of California, Santa Barbara attracts top students from across the United States and around the world. UCSB welcomes international applicants to our campus. An international applicant is a student who holds or expects to hold a student, exchange, visitor or diplomatic visa and who wishes to attend school in the United States.

As an international student, you can apply as a freshman or a transfer student and you must meet the University of California subject requirements at the freshman or transfer level. You are considered a freshman applicant if you have completed secondary school and have not enrolled at any college or university. You are considered a transfer applicant if you have completed secondary school and enrolled in a college or university.

Guide for Freshman Applicants

http://admissions.sa.ucsb.edu/docs/default-source/PDFs/uc-personal-questions-guide-freshman.pdf?sfvrsn=cdc426cc_4

Freshman applicants: Personal insight questions

Answer any 4 of the following 8 questions:

1. Describe an example of your leadership experience in which you have positively influenced others, helped resolve disputes, or contributed to group efforts over time.
2. Every person has a creative side, and it can be expressed in many ways: problem solving, original and innovative thinking, and artistically, to name a few. Describe how you express your creative side.
3. What would you say is your greatest talent or skill? How have you developed and demonstrated that talent over time?
4. Describe how you have taken advantage of a significant educational opportunity or worked to overcome an educational barrier you have faced.
5. Describe the most significant challenge you have faced and the steps you have taken to overcome this challenge. How has this challenge affected your academic achievement?
6. Think about an academic subject that inspires you. Describe how you have furthered this interest inside and/or outside of the classroom.
7. What have you done to make your school or your community a better place?
8. Beyond what has already been shared in your application, what do you believe makes you stand out as a strong candidate for admissions to the University of California?

How to Apply as an International Applicant

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 situation, we encourage applicants to have all documents, including transcripts, sent electronically. Many universities offer electronic transcript services. If your college/university does not offer such an option, we will accept transcripts that are emailed to enrollintl@stonybrook.edu from college/university staff on your behalf. As a last resort, you may upload an unofficial copy of your transcript to your SBU Applicant Portal. Note: an official transcript from your college/university will be required at a later time.
